14 Attorneys for Defendant ARISTA NETWORKS, INC.

15 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
16 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
17 SAN JOSE DIVISION

18 CISCO SYSTEMS, INC.,

19 Plaintiff,

20 v.

21 ARISTA NETWORKS, INC.,

22 Defendant.

Case No. 5:14-cv-05344-BLF (PSG)

DEFENDANT ARISTA NETWORKS, INC.'S
FOURTH SUPPLEMENTAL INITIAL DISCLOSURES PURSUANT TO FEDERAL
RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 26(A)(1)

Judge: Hon. Beth Labson Freeman

Date Filed: December 5, 2014

Trial Date: November 21, 2016

Pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant Arista Networks, Inc. (“Arista”) hereby makes the following supplemental initial disclosures. Arista makes these disclosures based on information that is reasonably available to it at this time, following a good faith inquiry in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26. Discovery and further investigation and analysis may yield additional information. Arista reserves the right to amend and/or supplement these disclosures as further information becomes available to it.

Arista reserves all objections to the use of these initial disclosures, or any of the information and documents referenced herein. By referring to documents and individuals in these initial disclosures, Arista does not waive the right to object to any discovery request on any basis, including, but not limited to, relevancy, overbreadth, undue burden, attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, or any other lawful protection from disclosure. Further, by referring to documents and individuals in the initial disclosure process, Arista makes no representation or concession regarding the relevancy or appropriateness of any particular witness, document, or piece of information. Indeed, once Arista better understands the nature of Plaintiff Cisco Systems, Inc.’s (“Cisco”) allegations, it may supplement these disclosures, or replace one or more of the items below with new information that is better suited to the issues in this case. In addition, Arista does not waive any objections as to the relevance or admissibility of any witness, document or other information at trial or with regard to any pleading filed with or argument made before this Court.

A. Individuals Likely to Have Discoverable Information – Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(i)

Pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(i), Arista identifies the following individuals that Arista currently believes are “likely to have discoverable information—along with the subjects of that information—that [Arista] may use to support its claims or defenses in this action, unless solely for impeachment.”

Arista may also rely on individuals identified in Cisco's initial disclosures, or otherwise identified through discovery in this action. Arista reserves the right to disclose additional individuals whom Arista may use to support its claims or defenses based on information learned during the course of this litigation.

B. Documents in Arista's Possession, Custody or Control That Arista May Use to Support Its Claims or Defenses – Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(ii)

Pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(ii), Arista provides the following description by category of all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things that Arista currently believes it may use to support its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment:

- Documents related to the products or services Arista believes may be accused by

Cisco of infringing the Asserted Copyrights or Patents-in-Suit, including documents sufficient to evidence their development, structure, operation, and/or characteristics.

- Documents related to the sales and marketing, if any, and/or costs of the products or services Arista believes may be accused by Cisco of infringing the Asserted Copyrights or Patents-in-Suit.
- The Patents-in-Suit, applications related to the Patents-in-Suit, and the prosecution history for the Patents-in-Suit.
- Documents relating to the prior art cited during the prosecution of the Patents-in-Suit, and other prior art related to the Patents-in-Suit.
- Documents in the possession, custody or control of Cisco, or its current or prior counsel, relevant to Arista's non-infringement, invalidity, and/or other defenses.

The above-referenced categories of documents that are in Arista's custody are located at Arista's offices at 5453 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, California 95054, or another Arista facility. This information is based on Arista's investigation to date, and Arista reserves the right to supplement and/or amend it upon further investigation and discovery in this action, and may rely upon additional materials.

C. Computation of any Category of Damages Claimed by the Disclosing Party – Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iii)

At this time, Arista only seeks to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Arista is not yet certain as to the amount of fees and costs it will seek, which are continually accruing.

D. Applicable Insurance Agreement – Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iv)

Arista is currently unaware of any applicable insurance policies. In the event Arista determines that such coverage is available, it will make appropriate disclosures.

* * *

In providing the above initial disclosures, Arista does not waive any objections, defenses or applicable privileges. Arista will supplement these disclosures to the extent required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of Court.
